MANAGING PARTNER

Personal Bio:

Born and raised in Southern California, Glen graduated top of his class and decided to study Psychology at the University of Southern California. After graduating in 2.5 years and serving a full-time mission for the LDS Church, Glen married a close family friend, and went on to study at the J. Reuben Clark Law School, graduating in 2013. He and Kim now have 5 wonderful children. Along the way he began a career in financial services which ultimately led him to an interest in serving people by helping them protect their families and their assets through estate planning.

Business Bio:

Glen is now the managing partner of Inter Vivos, PLLC, the nation's largest estate planning law firm headquartered in Utah. After founding the firm in 2014, Glen has assisted countless families in their planning and handled both large estates and complex international planning needs including cases across Europe, South America and Asia. His expertise includes assisting with offshore entities, and coordinating international assets and tax. The firm now has over 100 member attorneys with licenses in 38 different states and 10 countries. It annually receives recognition as the Best Estate Planning Firm in the United States by multiple international publications since 2018 and Glen has been recognized with over a dozen Best Managing Attorney awards.
