

Yalda Taghizadegan

Attorney at Law

Inter Vivos, PLLC

Office Location:

10925 Beechnut Street

Suite A106

Houston, TX 77072

855-355-1060 ext. 114

Practice Group:

Professional Planning

Licensed in:

Texas

Alma Mater:

South Texas College of Law, Houston

ASSOCIATE COUNSEL

Personal Bio:

Yalda Taghizadegan was born in Houston, Texas and was raised in Dallas. She also lived in Iran from 1999 through 2003. Graduating in May of 2016, Yalda attended South Texas College of Law Houston. In her spare time, Yalda enjoys scuba diving, photography and graphic design, as well as kickboxing and yoga. She and her fiancé share a passion for traveling. Yalda enjoyed being involved with community service during her college years. She was a part of the Gamma Sigma Sigma National community service sorority (GSS) at the University of Texas in Dallas. They worked with local charities and National organizations such as the March of Dimes, American Red Cross, American Cancer Society and Madd. In addition, she volunteered in the Randall o. Sorrels Estate Planning Clinic to help low income individuals and families with their estate planning needs and worked with Catholic Charities to help low income families with their immigration issues.

Business Bio:

Specializing in estate international estate planning, immigrant planning and business formations, Yalda serves clients in Houston, Texas and surrounding areas. Her vision is to deliver creative and effective solutions, unique to every individual and family need. She strives to work with every client on a personal basis and to offer the highest quality representation possible. Bringing diversity to the law is Yalda's passion. She believes everyone deserves legal representation, regardless of race, religion, age or income level. Her personal strengths include honesty, integrity, and reliability. Clients can count on Yalda to do the right thing, no matter what.

Please visit for more information:

