Personal Bio:

Adlai Coronel was born in Quezon City, Philippines but at a young age moved to Southern California where he was raised. Adlai received a BA in economics and political science from UCLA, and a JD from University of California, Davis. Adlai is married to Cherise and they have a daughter, Cara. Service is an important aspect of Adlai's life. He serves at his church helping with Sunday mass with St. Linus Church. In addition, he is an active volunteer with Disney marathons and Race for the Cure as well as other service events organized through Pacific Life Good Guys and Cruzader Nation 2. When he is not building lego castles and watching Disney Junior with his 4-year-old daughter or taking walks with his wife, Adlai enjoys playing tennis and being a frustrated golfer.

Business Bio:

Serving Southern California, Adlai specializes in securities regulation and compliance, corporate law, as well as mergers and acquisitions. Devoted to family and faith, Adlai is open-minded and sympathetic to his clients' concerns. He takes seriously his responsibility to serve their best interests.
