Personal Bio:

Frank Seldon was born and raised in a Dutch dairy farm community in Langley, British Columbia. His parents were 2 of three 3 teachers in the small elementary school he attended. In 2003 Frank graduated from the University of Washington and passed the Bar. Frank and his wife have a wonderful blended family of 6 children and 8 grandchildren. Frank served twenty years in the Army National Guard and served three post 9-11 tours. Having published two books, Frank enjoys writing in his spare time. He also enjoys spending time with his grandkids.

Business Bio:

Specializing in Self-directed IRAs and Rollover Business Startups, Frank serves clients in the Greater Seattle area. His mission statement is, "Maximize Control, Reduce Taxes, Limit Liability." Frank's strength is active listening and working with his clients to create what they want and to get it right by paying attention to details.
