Personal Bio:

Karyn Osinowo is an Illinois-licensed attorney and owner of Karyn Osinowo Law Offices, a social enterprise and business law firm. Karyn helps her clients create solutions that change society for the better, and her practice areas include setting up the appropriate legal structure for the enterprise, corporate governance, contracts and business transactions, and intellectual property. Karyn understands the unique needs of social entrepreneurs and enjoys providing counsel to protect their businesses, ideas, and brands as well as position them for growth and long-term sustainability. Through her association with Inter Vivos PLLC, Karyn also offers estate planning, business planning, and legacy planning services.

Karyn received her B.A. from Emory University and earned her J.D. from Boston University School of Law, where she was a member of the International Law Society. She is active in her community and has volunteered as attorney with Pro Bono Network of Oak Park as well as served as a volunteer French Interpreter/Translator for Heartland Alliance's National Immigrant Justice Center.

Karyn currently resides in the Lakeview neighborhood of Chicago with her two daughters and enjoys sampling the world-class cuisine offered by Chicago's restaurants. In her spare time, she also enjoys swimming, capoeira, and reading.
