Robert Fugal was born in American Fork and raised in Pleasant Grove and Lindon, Utah. After graduating from Pleasant Grove High School, with the help of scholarships and part time work in Orem and Provo, he graduated from BYU with a bachelor's degree in 1977 and a law degree in 1982. He served as a law clerk to the Honorable Eckhart A. Thompson, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Central District of California, then practiced as an associate in the bankruptcy law firm of Ryder and Walter in Fresno CA. Then in 1988 he moved back home to Lindon and co-founded the firm of Bird & Fugal to serve people needing debt relief services. Since 2006 he has added estate planning to his practice and enjoys helping families strengthen their relationships and establish security by effective planning. He and his wife Eloise enjoy their 5 children and their spouses and 16 grandchildren.
