ASSOCIATE COUNSEL

Born in Northern California, Benjamin N. Shaffer has lived in Utah, Florida, Taiwan, and Arizona. He spent many of his formative years in rural eastern Utah, and loved the Beehive state enough to return to practice law and raise his children here. Before becoming an attorney he was a teacher in Tucson AZ, and also taught for two years at an international school in Taipei Taiwan. Married since 2002, Benjamin and Windy Shaffer have four children, all girls, ages 4-12.

Benjamin is a graduate of the University of Arizona, James E. Rogers College of Law class of 2014, and of Southern Utah University, History class of 2005. He is a licensed attorney in Utah and Arizona. Benjamin is an active part of the local legal and estate planning community. He also volunteers through the charities of his local lodge of freemasons and his church.

He specializes in estate planning, financial law, and business law, for all types of families and situations. He serves primarily in Utah, Juab, Sanpete and Washington counties and can build estate plans, and business succession plans for any situation including but not limited to business partnerships and co-ops, step families, LGBTQ, and complex plural families.

Passionate about peacemaking, Benjamin seeks to resolve conflicts and specializes in preventing future problems through drafting documents with foresight. A properly drafted will, trust, or buy/sell agreement anticipates and likely eliminates points of conflict before they occur. In the event that proper planning has not been made, he can also probate estates with an eye to reducing both conflict and cost.

Let him plan for the unexpected, or allow him to advocate for you when the conflict occurs. He will calmly guide you through the process of reconciliation and seek a mutually beneficial solution. As a valuable member of our team of legal experts at InterVivos, Benjamin can be the responsive attorney you need.
