Personal Bio:

Louie Li was born in Beijing China and grew up in Seattle Washington. After majoring in Political Science and Law, Societies, and Justice at the University of Washington for his undergraduate studies, he decided to continue his education at the University of Washington School of Law, from which he graduated in 2017. Having worked in the restaurant industry for over seven years, while completing his education, Louie has developed a deep commitment to customer service ensuring not only that the needs of his clients are met, but also that they receive the best experience possible while working to protect their families with an estate plan.

Louie enjoys sports as well as hiking outdoors. He loves to cook and listen to music. Louie enjoys spending time with his family and friends and prioritizes building meaningful relationships. His actions reflect his personal mission statement "building success through relationships."

Business Bio:

Louie is now an attorney at Inter Vivos, PLLC, as well as the managing attorney of the Law Offices of Louie Li. Based in Bothell Washington, Louie's professional experience includes estate planning and family law. He is committed to providing a client-centric and personalized experience in both of his practice areas, in line with his mission statement.
