Personal Bio:

As a San Diego native, Nathalia is passionate about living a healthy and fulfilling life. She has a long-standing advanced yoga practice to maintain balance, and is an avid student of consciousness and positive mindfulness. Fluent in Spanish, she is -- a wife, daughter, sister, granddaughter, cousin, and niece -- an elemental part of a huge Mexican tribal family. She integrates all that she is to embrace opportunities to change and grow.

Nathalia received her J.D. from California Western School of Law, where she graduated cum laude. She received a Ph.D. from the University of California, Los Angeles, and a B.S. from the University of California, San Diego. Nathalia currently lives in Los Angeles with her husband.

Business Bio:

Nathalia has spent more than six years counseling clients in estate planning, business succession planning, intellectual property, corporate strategy, and business organization. Assisting families and business owners in making the best personal, financial, and legal decisions, her approach is to be a counselor to her clients first, and a lawyer second.

Prior to entering private practice, Nathalia was a judicial law clerk for the Honorable John A. Houston at U.S. District Court-Southern District of California in which she researched and ruled on all civil dispositive pretrial motions, and drafted the respective court orders in their entirety. Before that, she was a legal intern at the Scripps Research Institute, Office of Patent Counsel.
