Personal Bio:

Tyler was born and raised in the Seattle area until he was 14. His family then moved to Phoenix. He graduated from BYU J. Reuben Clark Law School in 2015. He also has a Masters Degree in Education. Tyler and his wife Ashley have two children, Benson and Maisy. Tyler loves sports, especially baseball, and pitched for BYU's baseball team from 1999-2005. Before making a career change, Tyler was a high school social studies teacher and baseball coach for years. He loves spending time with his family, reading, camping, the outdoors, and watching or playing sports. Tyler served an LDS mission to Hiroshima, Japan and has been involved in local politics, scouts, athletics and other service organizations.

Business Bio:

Tyler works as an Associate Attorney with Inter Vivos, PLLC working in the Boise, Idaho area, with clients in Utah, Arizona and Idaho. With a focus on charitable planning, he handles trust planning to help people avoid probate. His desire is for his clients to be prepared for the future and know that their family is taken care of when the inevitable happens. Estate Planning is needed by everyone, but most don't realize the need. He is passionate about educating people in a way they can understand. He wants his clients to feel good about the service he is providing.
